

Rantec Power Systems is Harris Corporation's Small Business Supplier of the Year

Rantec Power Systems is the proud recipient of the 2009 "Small Business Supplier of the Year Award".

During the recent award ceremony at Harris's Palm Bay facility, Harris noted several of Rantec's key attributes contributing to this award, including integrity, teamwork, communication and professionalism.

George Shave, Program Manager at Harris remarked: "Rantec's power supplies have demonstrated that they are robust, meeting technically challenging design requirements. Rantec continues to demonstrate a commitment to ongoing cost reductions while maintaining quality and providing deliveries on or ahead of schedule".
